Garden Club Holds Open House

Mrs. S. B. Waddell is at the punch bowl with Mrs. W. E. Jamerson, hostess and her house guest Doris Dixon ready to greet guests in the dining room during the "Christmas Aglow" open house. Of particular interest to visitors was the decorative apple arrangement topped with a pineapple used as a table centerpiece. Christmas red and green were used in candles and napkins picking up the color of the ruby red fruit punch.

Mrs. Ivey Holland stands beside the mantle of the W. E. Jamerson home decorated with large wreaths of greens feastooned with scarlet ribbon to welcome guests to the "Christmas Aglow" open house Saturday and Sunday sponsored by the Appomattox Garden Club, Mrs. Holland designed all the arrangements for the living room with other members carrying out a Christmas theme in fruit and flower arrangements in dining, kitchen and bedroom areas.

PAMPLIN

A Merry Christmas to all the readers of Pamplin News!

The Christmas program was held at Pamplin United Methodist Church Sunday morning and a treat for all the little ones.

The annual Santa Clause arrived in Pamplin Saturday afternoon. The children were all excited and each one received a treat. Pamplin Rurittan Club sponsored the occasion.

Mrs. Ruth Sanderson is spending the holidays as guest of Mrs. Francis Lewis in Glenside Pa. and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Frager in Dalestown, Pa.

Mrs. Bessie F. Mattox is spending the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Pat Canada of Richmond.

Mrs. Norwood Wayne returned home from Lynchburg Hospital where she has been a patient.

Miss Lucille Paulette continues ill at Medical College Hospital in Richmond.

Mr. Malcolm Inge of V. P. I. Miss Beth Massey of Lynchburg College are home for the holidays.

CLOVER HILL

Never a Christmas morning, never a New Year ends. But someone thinks of someone old days, old times, old friends.

This community was shocked to hear of the death of Mr. James Patterson. Funeral services were conducted from the Zion Baptist Church of Pamplin, Va. With burial in the family cemetary. To the family we want to express our heart felt sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Berkley Sr. and family attended the Annual Pre-Christmas Banquet at the Long Mt. Lodge No. 204 hall in Concord, Va.

We are hoping that good old Santa will be good to all the kiddies of this community. As your CHR reporter, I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and yours a very Merry Christmas and a very prosperous New Year. Also may God be with you.

From Your CHR
(Miss) Virginia A. Berkley

ne young to have t it – but I was, ers is one of the after living a year ual occupation, I e of meeting the s of America. And ad of bring re- brought gun. talked about home, ne eternally about e strange men on a and and while we, as looked up to them, ere's a little. But rs passed, and the deeds, the fear was replaced by respect. America put away bitterness, not to be forgotten, but so it wouldn't interfere with the main job of helping people.

Because of my experiences, the opportunity of living in the United States gives the words, "Peace on Earth Toward All Men of Good Will", a deeper meaning for me.

Now, as another Christmas approaches, it's my strange fighting men on another strange ground.

Now, as then, it's hard to be away from home at Christmas.

Now, as then, there's a reason it has to be done.

Occupation by Chairman Mao is no different from occupation by Russians. Czechoslovakia wants freedom as much as America but doesn't have the means to pursue and retain it. Whereas freedom is the right, at birth, of all men, we find it our duty to answer the call and come to the assistance of freedom-seeking men.

We struggle for this principle in the session halls of the United Nations.

We struggle for this principle in the emerging nations.

We struggle for this principle in our own country.

And we struggle hardest for this principle in the unhappy swamps of Viet Nam.

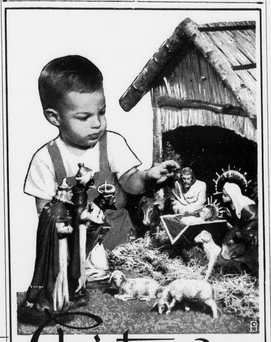
So it can't be the happy Christmas it should be. Our young men are standing in another part of the world. Their seats at the dinner table are empty. Their graduation suits hang empty in our closets. Their cars sit empty in the sheds. But there's no emptiness in our hearts.

We haven't asked that he stand for liberty, only to take away our support in his struggle. We haven't joined with his enemy to defeat his aim. And we won't let him down by misinforming him about our feelings.

This Christmas it's time for a moratorium. A moratorium against doubt. A moratorium against failture to speak up. A moratorium to reassure our brothers and sons that we know why they can't be with us and that we're sharing the pain of their absence.

It didn't make headlines because it was done thoughtfully and quietly, but just a few weeks ago, in thousands of smaller communities across the nation, Americans stood in chill winds in parks and on court house lawns. They heard amateur speakers give voice on Veteran's Day to the real feelings in the land. Feelings which tend to be smothered by shouting antics in Chicago court rooms. The deeper feelings which must be conveyed to the Americans who stand for us in the defense of freedom.

May I call on you in asking our Commander in Chief, U.S. Forces, Republic of Vietnam to pass on your feelings of support to our fighting men. Send a card to: General Creighton W. Abrams, Headquarters, U. S. Forces, Republic of Vietnam, APO 96601.



Christmas Greetings

As we rejoice in the story of the first Christmas, may the happy spirit of the holiday light up your home with peace, good will. Thanks to all you wonderful people for your loyal trust and support.
